IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Subject: Displaying & Selling Bladed items.

In accordance with the latest government knife legislation dated September 2024. The Overlord show committee asks that should you have any knives, swords, bayonets or machetes for sale that they must comply with the rules as defined in the new legislation.

Health & safety and Hampshire constabulary could be monitoring these activities during the show, please accept this as an advanced warning.

The show organisers do not and will not take responsibility for any outcome due to anyone found selling any bladed item which does not comply with the new government legislation.

Anyone found to be displaying knives, machetes, bayonets or swords for the purposes of selling which are found not to be within the new government legislation, will be asked to leave the show grounds, with no pitch refund.

We thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Regards.

Overlord show committee & team.
